

PROGRAM PRIORITIES FOR UW COLLEGES AND UW-EXTENSION 2007/2008

PROGRAM PRIORITIES	CHARGE/ACTIONS	RESPONSIBILITY	TIMELINE	STATUS/UPDATES
UW Colleges and UW-Extension Strategic Planning	The charge is to align the strategic plans emanating from the UW-Extension units and UW Colleges with strategic priorities. To establish a Strategic Planning Steering Committee and conduct a series of institution wide planning activities to yield a comprehensive plan.	Marv Van Kekerix	A draft is due in December 2007, feedback in January 2008, and ready for the Board of Regents Meeting in April 2008.	Early stages of the planning process.
Administrative Integration Steering Committee	To seek and find "naturally occurring" administrative integration opportunities	David Wilson	Ongoing	Board of Regents endorsed AISC plan and hired Chancellor David Wilson to lead UW Colleges and UW-Extension.
Commission on Enhancing the Mission of the Colleges	Answer the question: Should the existing mission of UW Colleges be reaffirmed, or should that mission be enhanced to enable it to more fully meet the needs of adult and place bound students?	John Torinus and Roger Axtell	Implementation ongoing	Report completed.
Madison Exploration Task Force	Recommend a clear strategy for advancing the "access mission" into the state's second largest city.	Greg Lampe and Steve Wildeck	Findings and Recommendations due in Chancellor's Office by December 15, 2007.	Committee in the early stages of its work.

Milwaukee Exploration Task Force	Explore partnerships in three areas: 1) Student success once students are admitted to UW-Milwaukee; 2) Adult student/returning adult student programming (both at the level of Continuing Education and on campus programming for adult students).	Greg Lampe and Rita Cheng	Finding and Recommendations due in Chancellor's Office by December 2007.	Committee in the early stages of its work.
Northern Wisconsin (NOW) Initiative	Committee was charged to determine if there is a need for more access to higher education in Northern Wisconsin and, if there is such a need, how should UW Colleges and UW-Extension respond to that need?	Margaret Cleek, Jim Veninga	Finding and Recommendations due in the Chancellor's Office by late December 2007.	In the midst of a demographic study of the northern tier of counties by the Applied Population Lab. Conducting phone surveys of regional residents. Will conduct 8 World Cafés in late October and early November.

Co-Location Task Force	Charged with exploring the issues surrounding co-location by answering the following questions: 1) In what ways can the local Cooperative Extension Office and the local UW Colleges work more collaboratively to respond to the needs of the county? 2) What benefits would be derived? What would be lost? And 3) What political, structural, and space issue would need to be addressed?	Karen Hintz and Jim Perry	Findings and Recommendations are due in the Chancellor's Office by December 2007.	Information has been gathered and the report is in first draft.
Joint Governance Work Group	Charged with identifying and exploring the challenges and opportunities involved in developing a shared governance model.	Greg Lampe, Mar Van Kekerix, Doug Hosler, Elizabeth Zanichowsky, Rob Burke, Lee Cunningham, Greg Wise, Michael Maguire, and John Fischer.	Co-located Governance Meetings in January 2008 at the Pyle Center and April 2008 at the UW-Baraboo/Sauk County.	Ongoing discussions and gathering/information from various colleagues and constituency groups.
The Adult Student Initiative	A statewide initiative designed to reach more place bound adult students throughout Wisconsin.	Marv Van Kekerix and Greg Lampe	2007-2009 and beyond.	Development of a UWIN Website; created a marketing plan/strategy; piloted accelerated, hybrid, online UW Colleges Courses; Course Conversion Funding for Program Expansion; Prior Learning Assessment; Establishing a Statewide Advising Network, Seeking to reach Adult Student Outreach on all UW Campuses.

Program Innovation Fund	Goal is to establish collaborative and joint education ventures between UW Colleges, UW-Extension divisions and other partners to advance learning and service to the citizens of Wisconsin.	Marv Van Kekerix and Ann Keim	Grants program administered yearly, depending on the availability of funds.	12 grants were given in 2007. Six of the twelve included UW Colleges & UW-Extension (view report on web link) http://uwex.uwc.edu/chancellor/integration/documents/ReportAPC07.pdf
UW Colleges and UW-Extension Collaboration Work	These initiatives and programs are designed to provide opportunities for Colleges, units and divisions within the two institutions to engage and work in on cooperative ventures to advance both institutions	Greg Lampe, Marv Van Kekerix, and Ann Keim	Will always be an ongoing process.	Report given to Administration Integration Steering Committee/Governance Groups on 11/07/07

UW System's Strategic Framework to Advantage Wisconsin	Advantage Wisconsin captures the capacity of UW System campuses across Wisconsin to address the state's urgent need to revitalize its economy, better educate its residents and strengthen its communities. The UW System's core strategies to Advantage Wisconsin will enhance the success of the state's businesses, residents and students in an increasingly global, multi-cultural and competitive world.	Don Mash and a System wide Committee composed of 7 Think Tanks	Report and Recommendations are due to President Reilly and The UW Board of Regents in February 2008.	Committee just began it's work in October 2007.
Regents Mtg (April 9-11, 2008)	UWC & UW-Extension host the Regents at the Pyle Center; showcase programs and benefits we extend to the state	Mtg: Teri Venker, Bill Mann Program: Ann Keim and Lisa Seale	1st Mtgs in December 2007 Regents meeting April 9-11, 2008	December meeting subgroups will handle various aspects of the meeting
UW Colleges Baccalaureate Exploration	Per the "Commission" explore Baccalaureate possibilities	David Wilson	Chancellors Dec/Jan UWS Regents - February	Task force report due December 07, 2007 ongoing process:
Integrating UW Colleges and UW-Extension's Board of Visitors	The charge is to combine the two boards into one for a more efficient and effective use of this group of external advisors	Willie D. Larkin and Mary MacKendrick	Findings and a recommendation will be presented to the Chancellor by January 1, 2008	A tentative design is being constructed and discussions are being initiated with a number of sources within both institutions and a substantive discussion will be held with both groups of BOV.

UW Colleges & UW- Extension Multicultural Awareness Program (MAP)	Create a pluralistic organization that institutionalizes an inclusive culture	Valerie Maurice, Susan Fey, Dan Malacara, Jason Messer	Ongoing	2005-2007 320 Participants Negotiating VISIONS contract for the 2nd Cohort of Trainers (25) from both institutions
Records Management Program	The goal is to establish a comprehensive Records Management Program to serve the needs of both institutions. Additionally, to establish policies and procedures to keep the institution's information resources assessable and retrievable to meet administrative, legal, audit, research, and historical requirements.	Willie D. Larkin	Records Management is an ongoing process.	The following actions are taking place: 1) Creating a Records Management Structure; 2) Establishing a UW Colleges/UW-Extension Records Coordinator Group; and 3) Establishing a website.
Committee on Residence Halls	Charged with exploring the future of residence halls on UW Colleges campuses, and evaluating the various impacts. Of particular interest is to study how residence halls may be used as a tool to enhance the UW Colleges' mission.	Steve Wildeck	Final report due December 31, 2007	Final report is being drafted. Committee will meet December 13 to finalize report and submit to the Chancellor.